

Cincinnati Scale Modelers

Special Awards

Boss Hog

Any model qualifies. The model must depict or have at its core the meaning of service to the United States. Figures, fire trucks, armor vehicles, etc. that have an interesting story behind them! You MUST supply a brief written explanation of your model and the story behind it!

Little Buckaroo

This award is for P-38 Lightnings of any scale in honor of Maj. Robert C. "Buck" Rogers.

Spirit of Cincinnati*

Greater Cincinnati including Northern Kentucky impactful military industry

Sponsored by LaRosa Pizza, this award can go to MANY models. Some ideas are:

- Camaro cars (produced by Fisher-Body in Norwood)
- Los Angeles-class submarines (in honor of USS Cincinnati 693)
- Sherman tanks (turrets cast by Moser Safe Company)
- Jets powered with GE engines: F-16C & later, F-86 Sabers (J-47 engine), F-4 Phantom II (J-79 engine) F/A-18 Hornet and Super Hornets (F-404 & F-414 engines)
- B-17s & B-29s (radial engines made by Wright Aeronautical Plant, Evendale)
- 1-ton and 10-ton cargo trailers for Army and Airforce Ordinance (Queen City Manufacturing)
- Models featuring universal tool sets
- Roman figures (in honor of Lucius Quinctius Cincinnatus)
- An item associated with a prominent Cincinnati: a figure from a Steven Spielberg movie (born in Cincinnati), something related to broadcasting (Ted Turner born in Cincinnati)
- Items with the name Cincinnati, Reds logos, Bengals stripes (Tiger Meet)
- Horse figures (in honor of Cincinnati Eddie Arcaro-Tripple Crown jockey)
- Vintage race cars (in honor of Caleb Bragg – champion race car driver)